

1/ Japan sees opportunity in Myanmar's emerging economy

<http://www.reuters.com/article/2013/01/04/us-myanmar-japan-idUSBRE9030P220130104>

Friday, 4 January 2013

(Reuters) - Japan's Deputy Prime Minister confirmed fresh financial aid for Myanmar during a visit to an industrial zone on 4 January 2013.

2/ Foreign companies to invest in waste to energy project

<http://elevenmyanmar.com/business/2069-foreign-companies-to-invest-in-waste-to-energy-project>

Wednesday, 09 January 2013

About 60 foreign companies are interested in investing in a waste to energy project in Yangon which are from Thailand, Singapore, Japan and Republic of Korea. The renewable energy will be gained from daily trash, by using methane gas and compressed natural gas (CNG) to produce electricity. The deadline for the submission of proposals is on 28 February 2013.

3/ Foreign businessmen set to attend Yangon trade fair

<http://elevenmyanmar.com/business/2067-foreign-businessmen-set-to-attend-yangon-trade-fair>

Wednesday, 09 January 2013

Myanmar will hold another trade fair gathering business delegations from more than 17 countries. The International Trade Fair 2013 will be held from 16-18 January 2013 at the Tatmadaw Exhibition Hall in Yangon. Businessmen delegations from the US, UK, France, Germany and Switzerland, among other will participate and over 80 Asian companies will be on exhibit.

4/ Myanmar to hold investment summit

<http://elevenmyanmar.com/business/2047-myanmar-to-hold-investment-summit>

Tuesday, 08 January 2013

Myanmar Investment Summit 2013 will be held at Sedona Hotel, Yangon from 28 to 29 January 2013, according to the Republic of Union of Myanmar Federation of Chambers of Commerce and Industry (UMFCCI). The Summit will mainly discuss Myanmar's new Foreign Investment Law that was enacted in November 2012.