

การจัดการป่าไม้ที่ยั่งยืนตามมาตรฐานสากล Sustainable Forest Management : SFM

FIO | องค์การอุตสาหกรรมป่าไม้
Forest Industry Organization

How to SFM
step

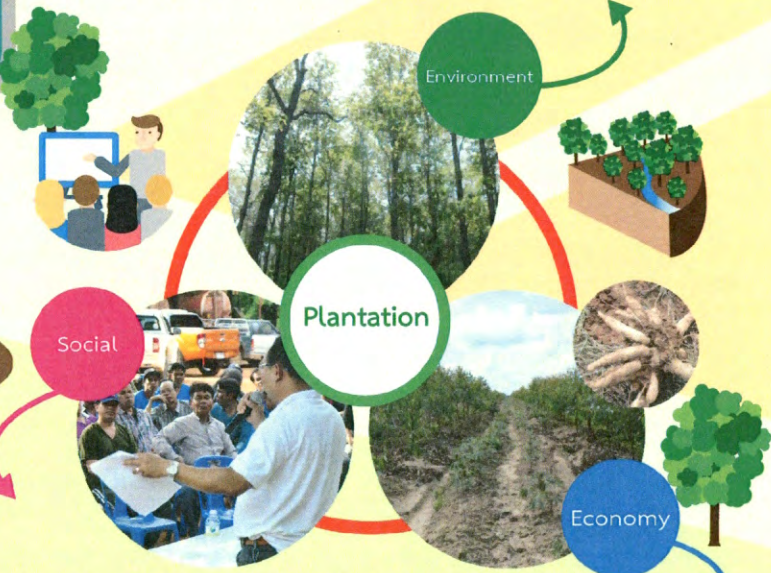

Develop and implement sustainable forest management standards for Thai businesses both small operators, private company, public sector are recognize international.

Enhance the Competitive advantage of the forest business with ASEAN countries.

Make income for forest business.

- Set preserve area such as Stream Bank, Buffer Zone, Encourage endangered forest area, Semi- natural forest/ Natural forest and High Conservation Value Areas.

- Meeting attended by people around area.
- Support employment in area with welfare.
- Community service.
- Encourage agroforestry.
- Encourage local community to process forest products such as wood and wood chip

Sustainable management of plantation areas.

Economic forest.

Natural forest.

EXPORT

supports 3 years investment
in Slow growing species

5,940 THB per rai

Area 2,000 Rai / 13 province

Farmers 242 person

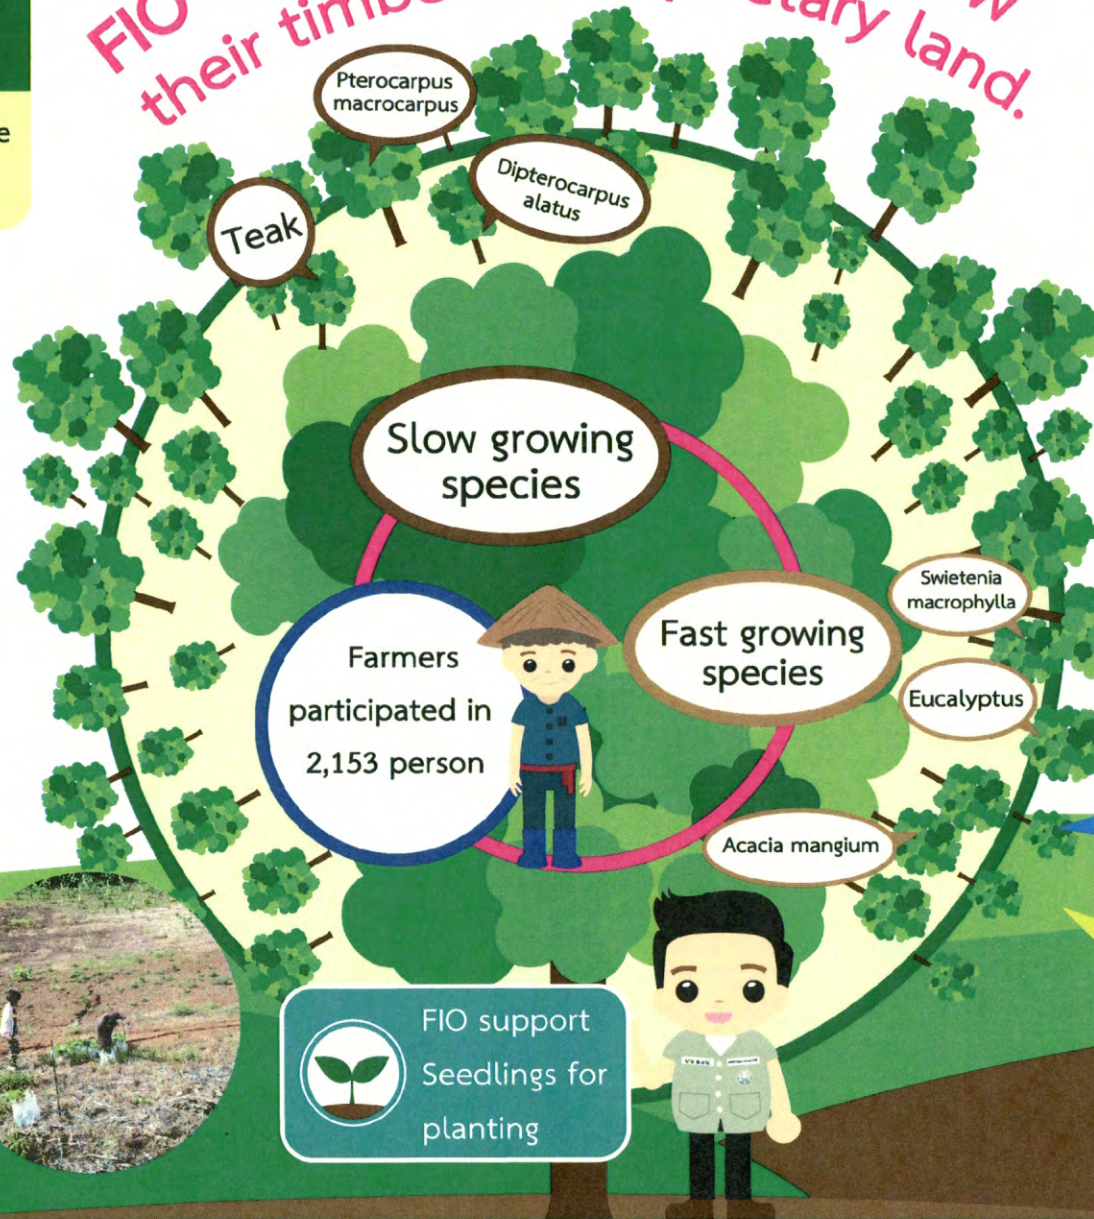

FIO encourages farmers to grow their timber in proprietary land.

supports 3 years investment
in Fast growing species

3,500 THB per rai

Area 20,000 Rai / 26 province

Farmers 1,911 person

Stable career by encourage commercial plantation in areas where agriculture is ineffective or low productivity.

Reducing invasion of natural forest areas.

Change degraded forest area to commercial plantation.

Farmers have wood for use such as local fuel, building, etc.

Income for communities near biomass power plants from sale of wood as a raw material for biomass power generation.

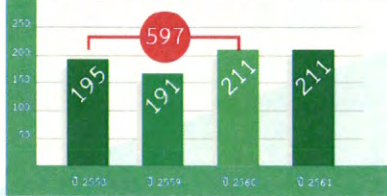

Technology transferred project to international standard of teak production and join to ASEAN.

Develop and transfer technology to improve the standard of teak products

องค์การอุตสาหกรรมป่าไม้
FOREST INDUSTRY ORGANIZATION

Training attendance statistics at Technology Transfer Center in Phrae province.

● Reducing natural forest demand.

Raw materials used from the forest plantations of the certified and legally required.

Use of wood from plantation forest = Afforest

● Developing wood industry skill of labour.

FIO make opportunity for knowledgeable people to get more skills and learn modern technology for develop the capacity of wood industry for businesses and their own industry and community..

● Increasing local income.

The economy in local community and province has improved direction. Local people have a better career and better quality of life.

● Upgrading teak industry to international level.

Labor standards, products and quality are recognized internationally.

● Expanding wood products market to abroad.

Open trade opportunity because products have styles and quality. Recognized by both domestic and foreign target.

● Providing innovation and wood industry technology.

FIO have teams and experts for provide advanced technology transferred advice to students, include public people.

The project was established by Forestry Industry Organization work together with government, private sector and local communities. The purpose is providing a source of learning. Also transfer knowledge of teak furniture products to be worthwhile. The construction started in 2013, located in Rong Kwang District, Phrae province.

Technology Transfer Center for wood industry standard improvement (Forest Industry Organization)

199 Moo.6, Rong Kwang Sub-District, Rong Kwang District, Phrae province, Postal code: 54140

Tel/Fax 054 596 556 or Tel 081 602 1106

