Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)

ODA and JICA

Since 1954, Japan has been providing financial and technical assistance to developing countries through ODA (Official Development Assistance), aiming to contribute to the peace and development of the international community. JICA is in charge of administering all ODA such as technical cooperation, ODA loans and grant aid in an integrated manner. JICA assists and supports developing countries as the executing agency of Japanese ODA, and works in over 150 countries and regions and has some 100 overseas offices.

JICA's Vision

Leading the world with trust

JICA, with its partners, will take the lead in forging bonds of trust across the world, aspiring for a free, peaceful and prosperous world where people can hope for a better future and explore their diverse potentials.

JICA's Mission

JICA, in accordance with the Development Cooperation Charter, will work on human security and quality growth.

Actions

1. Commitment: Commit ourselves with pride and passion to achieving our mission and vision.
2. Gemba: Dive into the field ("gemba") and work together with the people.
3. Strategy: Think and act strategically with broad and long-term perspectives
4. Co-creation: Bring together diverse wisdom and resources.
5. Innovation: Innovate to bring about unprecedented impacts.

Ministry of Social Development and Human Security (MSDHS)

MSDHS's Vision

“Ensuring equitable access to opportunities, inclusive social protection, and life security for every citizen.”

MSDHS's Mission

The Ministry serves as the principal agency responsible for social development. Its mission includes advancing social development, promoting justice and equality, enhancing the quality of life and social security, and strengthening family and community institutions.

The Ministry has the main mission to ensure that all population groups—particularly children, youth, women, underprivileged persons, persons with disabilities, and the elderly—enjoy a secure livelihood and are protected in accordance with their constitutional rights as stipulated in the 1997 Constitution of the Kingdom of Thailand. The Ministry works through an integrated, systematic approach that combines concepts, directions, and administration across all sectors and levels of society.

Duties and Responsibilities

1. Enhance human potential and strengthen the family institution.
2. Promote equal access to opportunities and comprehensive social protection.
3. Encourage participation and partnership from all sectors in sustainable social development.
4. Elevate organizational performance through good governance and digital technology.
