

Announcement of the Department of International Organizations
Subject: No Gift Policy for the performance of Duties B.E. 2567 (2024)

The Department of International Organizations endeavours to manage our organization with good governance to gain trust and confidence from society. I, as the Director-General of the Department of International Organizations, hereby declare my intention to perform duties and administer official affairs to the utmost of my ability, with honesty, transparency and accountability, in accordance with the ethical guidelines, as well as adhering to the principles of good governance. I hereby pledge that all of the Department of International Organizations' executives and officials have no intention of accepting any gifts or profits, both before and after the performance of our duties, which may lead to corruption and misconduct at present and in the future. I shall also stand against all forms of corruption, promote honesty and create a strong and sustainable organizational value and culture of integrity.

It is hereby announced and to be adhered by all.

This announcement is made on 9 February B.E. 2567 (2024)
