

Thailand's Long-Term Resident Program (LTR)

Thailand is introducing a new visa called "Long-Term Resident (LTR)" which is a program that provides a range of tax and non-tax benefits to enhance the country's attractiveness as a regional hub for living and doing business for 'high-potential' foreigners.

This new visa program is expected to attract new foreign residents, technologies and talents contributing to domestic spending and investment while supporting economic growth. The Thai government has set the target of attracting one million wealthy or talented foreign residents into the country over the next five years.

Open for applications on September 1, 2022

Which categories of foreigners will be offered LTR visas in Thailand?

LTR visas will be offered to four categories of foreigners:

Wealthy Global Citizens, Wealthy Pensioners, Work-from-Thailand Professionals, and Highly Skilled Professionals. Spouses and dependants of LTR visa holders will also qualify for the same visas.

Wealthy Global Citizens Wealthy individuals holding at least USD 1 million in assets and investment in Thailand

Wealthy Pensioners Retirees aged 50 years and older who have an annual pension or stable income

Work-From-Thailand Professionals

Remote workers working for well-established companies overseas

Highly Skilled Professionals Professionals or experts in targeted industries working for business entities or higher education institutes or research centers or specialized training institutions in Thailand or Thai government agencies

Dependants

Spouse and children under 20 years old of LTR visa holders (Maximum 4 dependants in total per one LTR visa holder)

What privileges will be offered to LTR visa holders?

There will be many privileges for LTR visa holders that will make living in Thailand long term easier and less bureaucratic. Beyond the overall ease of regulations concerning foreign residents, the LTR visa program makes the process of hiring foreigners easier and the foreign experts hired will strengthen the private business sector of Thailand.
