

Constitution Drafting Roadmap (as part of the 3-Phase Roadmap)

1. The National Reform Council (NRC) of 247 members completed its term on 6 September 2015.
2. The Constitution Drafting Committee (CDC) of 36 members completed its term on 6 September 2015.
3. A national referendum, previously scheduled in January 2016, will now be postponed.
4. No other issues remain to be put to a referendum.
5. The Secretariat of the House of Representatives shall notify the NRC resolution to the Government and the National Council for Peace and Order (NCPO).
6. The NCPO shall appoint the Constitution Drafting Committee President and no more than 20 committee members within 30 days (5 October 2015). The new Constitution Drafting Committee shall submit a final constitution draft within 6 months before submitting the draft to a referendum (which will take approximately another 4 months).
7. The Prime Minister shall appoint the National Reform Steering Assembly (NRSA) of not more than 200 members within 30 days (5 October 2015) to continue implementing national reforms after the NRC.

Timeline

Sep – Oct 2015	a new Constitution Drafting Committee (21 members) is appointed
Oct 2015 – Apr 2016	Drafting of a new constitution (within 6 months)
Apr – Aug 2016	the new draft of the constitution is submitted to a referendum (within 4 months)
Sep 2016	Promulgation of the Constitution
Sep – Oct 2016	Drafting of organic laws (within 2 months)
Oct 2016 – Jan 2017	the National Legislative Assembly (NLA) passes organic laws (within 3 months)
Feb 2017	Organic laws are sent to the Constitutional Court for consideration (within 1 month)
Mar 2017	Promulgation of organic laws. Election campaign commences.
Mar – Jun 2017	a general election is held (within 3 months)
Jul 2017	a new government is formed (within 1 month)

8. The government structure from September 2015 – July 2017 will be as follows:

