

New Entry Regulations for Non-Thai Nationals who will Enter the Kingdom of Thailand (updated as of 10 January 2023)

According to the Ministry of Public Health, the new entry regulations for all non-Thai nationals who will enter the Kingdom of Thailand from 10 January 2023 are as follows:

- 1) Passengers are no longer required to provide a proof of COVID-19 vaccination. However, the Ministry of Public Health recommends that all passengers be fully vaccinated and follow the COVID-19 safety measures during their stay in Thailand and while boarding.
- 2) Passengers from the country that has requirements which may prevent them to go back due to COVID-19 shall be required to have a health insurance that has a coverage of at least USD 10,000 for the treatment of COVID-19 and covers for the entire stay in Thailand plus 7 additional days. Those with business arrangements, including flight crews and students, may have a letter from the host or other forms of insurance to cover such need.
- 3) Passengers who are unable to provide a health insurance or a letter showing that their host are responsible for their health insurance, are still allowed boarding. However, passengers may be asked to purchase a health insurance upon arrival in Thailand.
- 4) Holders of official passports, holders of diplomatic passports, and holders of United Nations Laissez-Passer are exempted from health insurance requirements.
- 5) Transit/Transfer passengers are exempted from health insurance requirements.
- 6) Any passengers that have symptoms of COVID-19 during their travel shall be recommended to test upon arrival in Thailand.

Notes

-All passport holders of the ROK are not required to provide a COVID-19 health insurance at the port of disembarkation and at the port of arrival. However, passport holders of the ROK who need Non-immigrant O-A visa to enter Thailand, are still required to have a health insurance for visa application as specified in <https://www.thaievisa.go.th/>
