EGEP is a two-week residential educational program that takes place twice a year (summer and winter) offered by Ewha Womans University. According the MOU between Ewha Womans University and UN Women, this program aims to promote education for women and gender equality in Asia and Africa by empowering women working in non-governmental public sectors and by nourishing the next generation of women leaders.

Program Goals On completing this program, participants will have:

- improved their theoretical knowledge and practical capacities from a gender perspective;
- broadened their understanding of women’s lives, women’s issues, and women’s rights in Asian and African contexts; and
- strengthened their feminist leadership capacities to build women’s solidarity and cooperation in local, national, and transnational contexts.

Programs While a more specific EGEP curriculum will be provided separately, the following are the major activities that participants may expect from the program:

- Lecture Seminars
- Open Forum
- Action Plans
- Social Hours
- Group Talk
- Study Tours to Korean NGOs
