

☰ Sections

Fri, 13 Mar 2026

E-PAPER | TODAY'S PAPER | AUSTRALIAN EDITION

Colombo

27°C

Home Breaking News Opinion Features Expose Business Sports World News Videos The Sun Life Obituaries

SUBSCRIBE

LOGIN

Trending

Breaking News

Top Stories

'Imaginative Freedom'

12 March 2026 03:01 pm

Views - 147

Bookmark

13
Shares

Mirror AI Summary - Quick Read

Generated by Mirror AI

Krishantha Subash's 'Imaginative Freedom' exhibition of paintings and prints is open to the public from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Siam Nivasa, C.W.W. Kannangara Mawatha, Colombo 07, until March 17.

With a career spanning over four decades, Krishantha Subash has been actively involved in artistic practice since the early 1980s. His first solo exhibition was held at the Ambalangoda Town Hall in 1984, the same year he won first place in the All-Ceylon Dhamma School Painting Competition.

In 1988, he presented his second solo exhibition, Chithrana 88, at the Lionel Wendt Gallery, further cementing his presence in the Sri Lankan art scene. Pix by Kithsiri de Mel

