

THAILAND as a Maritime Nation

Thailand is a prominent maritime state in seaborne trade and shipping facilitation as well as a major logistics hub in the region. With low logistics costs, excellent services, and connectivity through multimodal transport positions, Laem Chabang Port, as one of Thailand's major ports, is placed in the world's top 20 busiest container ports with best services and connectivity.

Coastline:
2,815 km.

Almost 90%
of Thailand's international trade is carried by sea.

Thailand's international trade
Total 329.715
million tons

291.948
million tons

36.569
million tons

0.785
million tons

0.413
million tons

*Source: Thailand's Logistics Report 2019
by the Office of the National Economic and Social Development Council*

PORT RANKING (UNCTAD, 2020)

20th of top world container ports: LAEM CHABANG PORT

TRADE VALUE:

413
billion US dollars

THAILAND'S CONTAINER TRADE VALUE:

10.58
million TEUs

MERCHANT FLEET:

35th
of world fleet
ranking

507.56
million DWT

111
direct port
connection