

Task 1

You have seen an advertisement for part-time staff at a summer camp for homeless children. The camp will be open during weekends and public holidays and will offer a wide range of activities, care and support for the children. You are interested in working there. Write a letter of application to the camp manager.

In your letter you should

- explain why you want to work at the camp
- describe what experience and skills you could offer
- suggest what kind of job you would like to do at the camp

Write a letter of at least 200 words.
